Notice to All Undergraduate Students

This is to inform that the semester II undergraduate examination will commence from the 1ˢᵗ of March 2021 as scheduled. However, the students who are unable to attend the semester II examination due to the COVID-19 situation are required to submit an appeal requesting to sit for the semester II examination at the next available opportunity without any penalty. To this end, a scanned copy of the appeal signed by the student shall be sent to  exam@ucsc.cmb.ac.lk on or before 5th March 2021 and the original shall be sent in post.

Student who choose to opt out from the semester II examination will be considered under Exceptional Circumstances (EC) category and may choose one of following options:

First Year Students

i) Join the following batch and continue studies (batch miss)
ii) Continue studies into the second year and sit the semester II examination at the next available opportunity.

Second Year Students

i) Join the following batch and continue studies (batch miss). This is a compulsory requirement for those who intend to get selected for the four-year honors degree.
ii) Continue studies into the third year and sit the semester II examination at the next available opportunity (i.e. during the internship period). Such students shall not be eligible for the four-year honors degree.

Fourth Year Students

i) Sit the semester II examination at the next available opportunity.

It is important to note that these exceptional circumstances will not be applicable for online evaluations of the second year group projects or the fourth year projects.

In the current situation it is emphasized that UCSC is taking maximum possible precautions to prevent the spread of the decease within the premises during the examination period. However, UCSC would not undertake the responsibility of any possible COVID-19 infections. Given the above options it is totally up to the students to decide whether to sit for the semester II examination based upon his/her context.
